Patient Conduct Confidentiality

ALL PATIENTS OF ALPINE PHYSICAL THERAPY

While a patient at Alpine Physical Therapy or any of its satellite offices, patients have an absolute obligation to keep confidential everything that pertains to the patient and his or her affairs.

Information overheard, observed, or obtained in conversation with other patients, his or her family, friends, care giver(s), or Healthcare professionals, is confidential and cannot legally be disclosed without the written consent of the patient or his or her legal guardian.

Questions regarding release of patient information should be referred to Alpine Physical Therapy.

I have read, understand, and agree to abide by this policy regarding confidentiality of patient and organizational information. I further understand that violation of this policy could result in legal action.
